

MARC BELLO, CPA, ABV, CVA, CFFA, MST is a Partner at Edelstein & Company LLP. Marc specializes in performing business valuations in the context of marital dissolution, financial reporting, gift and estate taxation, dissenting shareholder actions, and stock options. He also works extensively providing litigation support services as an expert witness in the areas of valuation, forensic accounting, lost profits, business interruptions, economic damages and taxation.

He is currently serving a three year term as an elected member of the Executive Advisory Board for the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts (“NACVA”). He served as the past chair and person of the Valuation Credentialing Board for NACVA. He is a member of the Family Law Curriculum Advisory Committee for Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education.

Marc is an instructor for the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA), and has been instrumental in the development and has co-authored numerous courses within their business valuation and financial forensic curriculum. Courses he has contributed to include Current Updates in Business Valuation; Business Valuation Fundamentals for CPA’s; Fundamental, Techniques and Theory; and Business Valuations: Applications and Calculations of the Income and Asset Approaches.

Additionally, he regularly presents for Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education and the Massachusetts Bar Association.

He is a member of the American Institute of CPA’s, the Massachusetts Society of CPA’s, National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts, and the Institute of Business Appraisers.

Within the community Marc is the active Treasurer and sits on the Board of Directors of Camp Bauercrest and participated in the Pan Mass Challenge for over 10 years.