A Message from Scott

A MESSAGE FROM SCOTT, OUR MANAGING PARTNER

Most CPA firms do a good job of talking about their products and services – “what” they do. At Edelstein & Company, we believe people are more interested in “how” we do things. These qualities better convey our value to clients and distinguish us from our competition.

So we purposely focused our website on why we think clients come to Edelstein, why they stay so long and how they experience working with us. In short

- We are committed to the success and well-being of our clients, team members and communities.
- Relationships are important to us. Our professionals team with one another and our clients to deliver outstanding service and to create a collegial environment.
- You see a lot of people smiling at Edelstein & Company. We work hard but we also have fun along the way.
- We strive to be leaders in everything we do. This applies to our community involvement as well as to our professional lives.

We take our relationships with clients and team members personally and we care very much about their success. We love what we do, and it shows. We invite you to come see for yourself.

Thank you,
Scott Kaplowitch
